

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has greatly improved the quality of life in my home for my wife, myself and my children. The number of unwanted interruptions were greatly reduced by this important Indiana law. Thank you.